

AFFÄIRE

In 2011, the debut single Born Too Late was released in 7" vinyl format, limited to 300 handnumbered copies, followed by 2013's Highway Affair, released digitally only.

AFFÄIRE's debut album At First Sight saw the light of day via Demon Doll Records in September 2015 and almost two years later it was time for Neon Gods digipack-EP - containing 4 new songs and the band's very own version of The Beatles' "I Saw Her Sanding There" - released by Raging Planet.

Live appearances in homeland Portugal and abroad - including shows with Paul Di Anno (UK), House Of Lords (USA), Chris Holmes (USA), Grim Reaper (UK), - preceded AFFÄIRE latest album Less Ain't More, released worldwide by Perris Records on April 2019. An animated video inspired by a 1985 debaucherous cult video game was produced for the first single "Paradise Café". In November 2019 a second one, "Nasty But True", was released and awarded Video of the Month at "The New Wave Of Hair Metal".

AFFÄIRE are currently writing new music, promoting the latest album and working on booking concerts and festivals in Europe.

"Less Ain't More" will probably find yourself playing the album over and over.
4,5/6 - Melodic Hard Rock [USA]

A real treat for fans of LA Guns, Vain and Guns N' Roses.
9/10 - Powerplay Magazine [UK]

I'd happily listen to music like this all night and in truth if your heart lies in the 80's there's nothing here you won't like.
